New England School Development Council

The University of New England is now offering NESDEC Affiliates 25% off tuition for qualifying online graduate education programs.

Take your career to the next level by investing in yourself!

UNE's Graduate Programs in Education develop reflective teachers and school leaders who are exemplary and caring lifelong learners through research, service, and innovative teaching and rigorous mind, compassionate heart, reflective stance, and competent demonstration.

As an educator, there is always an opportunity for growth in learning and with the UNE partnership, you get 25% off your graduate studies that will propel your career and salary forward.

Advancing your studies in education can open the door to growth and leadership opportunities in the education field, allowing you to move into administration, director level, or content-area specialist. Outside of the school system, educators with master's level training can pursue consultative, research or training roles, and more.
